2017 BARD SEASON SCHEDULE & INFORMATION

BMO Mainstage

Much Ado About Nothing

Directed by John Murphy

The search for perfect love and la dolce vita triggers mischief, misunderstandings and laughter, as Shakespeare's great romantic comedy lands in 1950s Italy.

The Winter's Tale

Directed by Dean Paul Gibson

A family's sixteen-year journey takes them from tragedy to redemption, in a magical and awe-inspiring adventure story.

The Merchant of Venice

Directed by Nigel Shawn Williams

Shakespeare's timeless story of power and prejudice explores how we choose to treat the 'others' in our midst.

Howard Family Stage

Shylock

by Mark Leiren-Young

Directed by Sherry J. Yoon

When do censorship and political correctness go too far? The Merchant of Venice's controversial outsider asks us all to be the judge.

The Two Gentlemen of Verona

Directed by Scott Bellis

Two couples, two clowns and one scene-stealing dog – all play their part as love and loyalty collide in a lively romantic adventure.
