

'WHAT DO YOU MEAN BY THAT SAYING?'

Shakespearean Quotations

Below you'll find some of the most famous quotes from Shakespeare's plays. Many of these have been adopted as 'aphorisms' which are short expressions of wisdom or truth. These ideas are often taken out of context and attributed to Shakespeare himself rather than to his characters. However, each of these quotes has a context within the play. It's worth remembering that.

EXPLORE

As you consider the quotations below, ask yourself these questions:

- What type of person might express this thought?
- How do you feel about the ideas being expressed? Do you agree or not?

"We know what we are but know not what we may be"

"The course of true love never did run smooth"

"Love looks not with the eyes but with the mind"

"There is nothing either good or bad but thinking makes it so"

"We are such stuff as dreams are made on"

"All the world's a stage"

"All that glitters is not gold"

"Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown"

"Neither a borrower nor a lender be"

"This above all: to thine own self be true"

"Love all, trust a few, do wrong to none"

"No legacy is so rich as honesty"

"Better three hours too soon
than a minute too late"

"One touch of nature makes the whole world kin"

"Better a witty fool than a foolish wit"

"O brave new world that has such people in't"

REFLECT

In writing or in conversation, share your thoughts about one (or more) quotation. Why did you choose it? Why might someone say this? Would you ever say this? Why or why not?

CREATE

Use your selected quotation(s) as inspiration for an original poem, story, piece of music or work of art.
